

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

TREMONT BLAKEMORE

NO. 3:19-CR-531-E

PROTECTIVE ORDER GOVERNING DISCLOSURE OF VICTIM INFORMATION

Upon the agreement of the United States of America (“the government”), and the defendant, Tremont Blakemore, by and through his counsel, David Finn, , the Court finds good cause for the entry of a protective order as set forth in the government’s motion.

The government shall provide to the defendant (1) the full name and date of birth of each Adult Victim (“AV”), and (2) the national criminal history of each AV (excluding their juvenile records, if any). Due to the sensitive nature of this information, the defendant, the defense counsel, and the government agree to the following restrictions on the use and disclosure of materials. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Will not be copied, and any public filings relating to the AVs will involve the use of their AVs and not their legal names;
2. Will not be shared outside of defense counsel’s office, defense expert’s office, or the correctional facility meeting room, with any person not employed by, or an agent of, defense counsel;
3. Will not be provided to, or kept by, the defendant.

4. Defense counsel, prior to sharing this information with any member of the defense team, shall inform that person or persons about the limitations set forth in this Order.

5. This Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of the prosecution of this case.

SO ORDERED.

Signed February 16, 2021.
